

The East Valley Domestic Violence Fatality Review Team
Agreement to Maintain Confidentiality

As a member of the East Valley Domestic Violence Fatality Review Team (EVDVFRT), I acknowledge that the effectiveness of the fatality review process is dependent on the quality of trust and honesty team members bring to it. Thus, I agree that I will not use any material or information obtained during the EVDVFRT meeting for any reason other than that which it was intended.

OR, as a guest of the East Valley Domestic Violence Fatality Review Team (EVDVFRT), I agree that I will not use any material or information obtained during the EVDVFRT meeting for any reason other than that which it was intended.

As a member or guest, I further agree to safeguard the records, reports, investigation material and information I review from unauthorized disclosure. I will not take any case identifying material from the meeting. Thus, I will not make copies or otherwise document/record material made available in these reviews, including electronically. I will return all material shared by others at the end of each meeting. Pursuant to A.R.S. § 41-198 (1), the EVDVFRT will return all information and records concerning the victim and the family to the agency that provided the information or, if directed by that agency, it shall destroy that information. I understand and acknowledge that the unauthorized disclosure of confidential records, reports, investigation materials and information may result in civil or criminal liability and exclusion from the EVDVFRT. Violation of the confidentiality provision of A.R.S. § 41-198 is a Class 2 Misdemeanor.
